GEN Hasso E. von Manteuffel, German Army-Ret

Forward by GEN Lyman L. Lemnitzer, USA-Ret

This book grows out of the conviction that the greatest immorality of any war is its unnecessary prolongation or amplification. The authors plead for reassessment of any military defense posture; they define the mechanisms and the philosophy of a practicable substitute for the total disaster of nuclear war or the agony of inconclusive use of military force. The reader is invited to think beyond catchwords.
